Cause You Are Young

C.C. Catch

Heartache, heartache, heart was gold All it had you instant cold Lonely, lonely wasted years You're a winner with bad souvenirs You're a hero, you're a man You're a winner, take my hand'cause you are young You will always be so strong Hold on tight to your dreams, hold on You are right, don't give up (Baby, baby, baby)'cause you are young You are right and you are wrong You are a hero, next day you're done So hold on to your dreams All or nothing you can give Live your life, love to live Oh man, oh man, feel the night Strong enough till the morning light You're a hero, you're a man You're too tough to lose this game Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.
