

A Little More (feat. Sansa)

Kaskade & John Dahlbäck

Blue road Half a mile a distant wing of your missing smile Long journey
Is that all I can get Blue Road
Half a mile Hear me out for a little while flash in the eye that I can't forget
A little more
A little more
A little more loving Gimme a Little more
A little more
Little more loving Blue road Almost mine, wave goodbye
now a faded line
This memory
Is it all that I get Tell me I'm fine, echoing through a clouded mind
please wake me up so I won't forget
A little more
A little more
A little more loving Gimme a Little more
A little more
Little more loving
