

It's My Turn

Kyle Bent

[verse 1] Beanie dropped a hit so I had to pick it up yup, dreaming for a hit that could make me live it up but, always bagging birds like Im coming from a duck hunt, every line is steaming so the verse is double cupped wha, I be writing heavy bars, drop it like confetti ah, hope these haters ready let me show you that im hella raw, they say I rock imma show u where them pebbles, schooling rappers no mercy in this seminar , going far, hope you are, ready for the dopest bars, heat it up in your face, feeling like you smoke cigars, yeah we are, the talent you are looking for, we hold our grounds, while them other rappers slip and fall, listen ya'll we making hits like wiffle ball, yall keep it all in your mouth but nah we spitting hard, ripping bars people feel it so they give applause, but you aint moving from the bottom like them cripples are chorus : I told em it's my time, what you gonna say about it, world is mine, what you gonna hate about, (this is what I deserve) 4x My music so bright, what they gonna tell me? priceless life what they gonna sell me? (this what I deserve) 4x

[verse 2] and I'mma make it known rappers aint touching me, eating every beat I'm on no cutlery, hustling every single day no days off , gotta get bread 'til all my momma's bills paid off, we all got dreams that we long to wake up to, either getting green or getting everyone to love you, trying to get your fam in that luxury living, or trying to get heard because nobody would listen, but my lines got tension, so they trying to pay attention , its essential, that you catching every single thing I mention , cause im the real deal, and you fake like extensions, X'ing out my clones im a 1 time invention, uh, I'm elevating to the top of my league , I live on keep sneezing no coughing for me see, im tryna open up a door to opportunity and laugh while my haters keep dropping their keys, ughchorus : I told em it's my time, what you gonna say about it, world is mine, what you gonna hate about, (this is what I deserve) 4x My music so bright, what they gonna tell me? priceless
