

Golden Chains

ALB

half past ten in the morning there's something humming in my head i wonder how long i could switch it off and switch it off again

It may be shame that i'm feeling, but it makes me get out of my bed, and then, I... Watch my face in the mirror And try to recognize a friend...

it's nice to see you again

Wohohoho

IT's better better than nothing

Take off your golden chains

Wohohoho

It's something you can give in... being some wheel in the engine it's a notion that i can defend, and yet, it's tough to play the part so hard and finally disappear from the scene

Move to the city move in there

And find myself in another place i swear,

That among the reason for loosing confusion...

I find the proper solution... Come back and THEN

it's nice to see you again

Wohohoho

IT's better better than nothing

Take off your golden chains

Wohohoho

It's something you can give in...

it's nice to see you again

Wohohoho

IT's better better than nothing nothing nothing

Take off your golden chains

Wohohoho

It's something you can give in...
