

Empty Room (feat. Yuna)

Big Wild

You've got a hollow soul
I feel that love is missing
The colour in your eyes
Is something I've been wishing
If, the burden on my back
Holding on to what we had
So that I'm dancing in an empty room
And not a memory or touch
Became so distant
The sun will rise again
With love comes forgiveness
Lift the burden on my back
Letting go of what we had
So that I'm dancing in an empty room
So that I'm dancing in an empty room
So that I'm dancing in an empty room
So that I'm dancing in an empty room
So that I'm dancing in an empty room
