That Song About the Midway

Joni Mitchell

I met you on a midway at a fair last year and you stood out like a ruby in a black man's ear you were playing on the horses, you were playing on the guitar strings you were playing like a devil wearing wings, wearing wings you looked so grand wearing wings do you tape them to your shoulders just to sing can you fly i heard you can! can you fly like an eagle doin' your hunting from the sky I followed with the sideshows to another town and i found you in a trailer on the camping grounds you were betting on some lover, you were shaking up the dice and i thought i saw you cheating once or twice, once or twice I heard your bid once or twice were you wondering was the gamble worth the price pack it in i heard you did! pack it in was it hard to fold a hand you knew could win So lately you've been hiding - it was somewhere in the news

So lately you've been hiding - it was somewhere in the news and i'm still at these races with my ticket stubs and my blues and a voice calls out the numbers, and it sometimes mentions mine and i feel like i've been working overtime, overtime

I've lost my fire overtime always playin' one more hand for one more dime slowin' down i'm gettin' tired!

slowin' down and i envy you the valley that you've found 'cause i'm midway down the midway slowin' down, down, down, down
