

Do You Remember

Ane Brun

Do you remember the late morning
When we went back to bed,
When we found the first position
And every muscle are resting I do remember that I already knew
It was the last time,
The last time for first positions
The last time you'll be mine Aaaaoo aoo aoo ao
Aaaaoo aoo aoo ao
Do you remember the scars I showed you
The stories I told you
How I always said forever
When you aksed me to stay true
Do you remember when we forgot
How to smile at each other
To believe that the other
Want only what's good for you Aaaaoo aoo aoo ao
Aaaaoo aoo aoo ao Aaaaoo aoo aoo ao
Aaaaoo aoo aoo ao Do you remember the late morning
When we went back to bed,
When we found the first position
And every muscle are resting
I do remember that I already knew
It was the last time,
The last time for first positions
The last time you'll be mine
