

Alright (feat. PnB Rock)

Snow Tha Product

Then I hit you back like something isn't...
You saying you working
You say you tired

Then I hit you back like something isn't right
I say I'm working
I'm on my grind

Then you texting me like somethings on your mind
You be calling me anytime, why?

You be all up in my timeline
Constantly stressing me
Then when I need you
You say you too busy to find time
Then I be blowing your line
I'm calling you back to back
I'm like

Why can't we get it together?
I swear neither one of us
Is in our right mind

Then I tell you, you ain't shhh
And then we fight

Then I hit your line like everything's alright
Then I tell you this is it, it, it
And then we fight

And you hit me up like everything's alright
And then I call it quits
You crossed the line

And then tomorrow, everything's alright
And we both say this is it, it, it
And then we fight

And then it's right back one more time
I be calling you up anytime, right
Ain't you supposed to be my wife?
Girl you be trippin'
You swear I be slippin'

Whole time, I be out here on my grind
I hit you up when I find time
No matter what, you think I'm lyin'
You swear I be letting go
I'm always working girl
We gotta make this thing right

Cause I ain't worried bout these other women
You the one for me and that's the difference

Shawty, I just need for you to listen
Say I'm working late and you start trippin'
Then I tell you, you ain't shhh
And then we fight
Then I hit your line like everything's alright
Then I tell you this is it, it, it
And then we fight
And you hit me up like everything's alright
And then I call it quits
You crossed the line
And then tomorrow everything's alright
And we both say this is it, it, it
And then we fight
And then it's right back one more time
Finna get up on my
P-O-P-I-M-P-I-N
I can tell that it's a problem by your reaction
Every relationship issue it's like we often
Don't need options
But try picking me, not them
Cause I been all in since way back
Waiting for you realizing when I say that
You can't ignore that all the back and forth
Gone have to force a last resort
Cause I done told you when I tell you,
You ain't shhh
And then we fight
Then I hit your line like everything's alright
Then I tell you this is it, it, it
And then we fight
And you hit me up like everything's alright
And then I call it quits
You crossed the line
And then tomorrow everything's alright
And we both say this is it, it, it
And then we fight
And then it's right back one more time
You say you working
You say you tired
Then I hit you back like something isn't right
I say I'm working
I'm on my grind
Then you texting me like somethings on your mind
