

Horses (feat. Lindsay Ell)

Keith Urban

Sometimes you get a little bit frightened
Afraid of the wind and the lightning
Sometimes you get a little bit insecure
Sometimes you wonder if you're even good enough
Hiding from the morning when it's too much
There's so much waiting behind the door And I know and I know and I know
That you just wanna dance in the light
Don't you know, don't you know, don't you know
You're alive
Chorus:
You just let your horses run
To the limit like never before
Let's be lost and young
I wanna show you what your heart is made for
Let your horses run
Let your horses run I saw you on the street just the other day
You look so pretty when you smile that way
So open up the door, let your heart escape 'Cause I know and I know and I know
That you just wanna dance in the light
Don't you know, don't you know, don't you know
You're alive Repeat Chorus
And I know and I know and I know
That you just wanna dance in the light
Don't you know, don't you know, don't you know
You're alive 'Cause I know, yeah, I know, I know
That you just wanna dance in the light
Don't you know, don't you know, don't you know
You're alive Repeat Chorus

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://counterlikes.com/>