

If I Was Your Vampire

Marilyn Manson

It's 6 am Christmas morning
No shadows
No reflections here
Lying cheek to cheek in your cold embrace
So soft and so tragic
As a slaughterhouse
You press the knife against your heart
And say that:
"I love you... so much, you must kill me now."
I love you... so much, you must kill me now
If I was your vampire
Soon as the moon
Instead of killing time
We'd have each other 'til the sun
If I was your vampire
Death waits for no one
Hold my hands across your face
Because I think our time has come
Taking your smile apart
With my spade tongue
And the hole is where the heart is
We built this tomb together
I will fill it alone
Beyond the pale
Everything's black, no turning back
If I was your vampire
Soon as the moon
Instead of killing time
We'd have each other 'til the sun
If I was your vampire
Death waits for no one
Hold my hands across your face
Because I think our time has come
Bloodstained sheets
In the shape of your heart
This is where it starts
Bloodstained sheets
In the shape of your heart
This is where it starts
This is where it will end
Here comes the moon... again
6: 19 And I know I'm ready
Drive me off the mountain
You'll burn and I'll eat your ashes
It's possible we're seducing your corpse
If I was your vampire
Soon as the moon
We'd have each other till the sun

If I was your vampire
Because I think our time has come Beyond the pale
Beyond the pale
