

Oklahoma Swing

Vince Gill & Reba McEntire

(Tim DuBois - Vince Gill)

Vince Gill & Reba McEntire
There's a redhead from my hometown
That loves to let her hair down
She tears my heart out when she starts to sing
She's from the right side of Red River
And she's pretty as a picture
Don't you know she's this ole cowboy's dream.
Oh, there's a boy from Okie City
And I sure think he's pretty
But I know he's trying to steal my heart away
Oh, my mama tried to warn me
He's done time in California
But he'll be an Okie till his dyin' day.
There's a dance we do in Oklahoma
A dance like you've never seen
Sit back and we're gonna show ya
How to do that Oklahoma swing.--- Instrumental ---
Well, when two Okies get together
Man there's nothin' they like better
Than to hold each other on a sawdust floor
Oh, I love it when we're swayin'
To those sweet twin fiddles playin'
Come on boy what are we waitin' for.
There's a dance we do in Oklahoma
A dance like you've never seen
Sit back and we're gonna show ya
How to do that Oklahoma swing.
Yeah, there's a dance we do in Oklahoma
A dance like you've never seen
Sit back and we're gonna show ya
How to do that Oklahoma swing.
Yeah, how to do that Oklahoma swing.--- Instrumental ---
