

No Introduction

TLC

T, L, TLC!

T, L, TLC!

T, L, TLC!

T, L, TLC!

We back! Been around the world a few times on a mission
Unfamiliar sound that you been hearing know you miss me

I've been running around the globe and no

I don't forget to mention

Left Eye still here irreplaceable position

Forever keep it Crazy Sexy with that AC on blast

We gon' do it in the future like we did it in the past

They know me out in Tijuana

Millions feel the full effect

Coming from your speakers

We don't need no scrubs chasing waterfalls

Just have that red light when the money calls

We don't need no scrubs chasing waterfalls

Just have that red light when the money calls

No we don't need no introduction

No we don't need no instructions

Yeah we've already paved the way

And we don't got no time to play We back!

Call my lawyer

We back!

Call my girls up!

We back!

I thought I told ya

We back!

No it ain't over

We back! No we don't need no introduction

No we don't need no introduction

No we don't need no introduction

No we don't need no introduction

Down I been up

Down I been up

I been down I been up

Down I been up We keep the hits comin'

We keep the party jumpin'

We're nowhere near done yet

We play in every country

We keep it 100 100

We know you want it want it

Coming from your speakers No we don't need no introduction
No we don't need no instructions
Yeah we've already paved the way
And we don't got no time to play We back!
Call my lawyer
We back!
Call my girls up!
We back!
I thought I told ya
We back!
Cuz it ain't over
We back! T, L, TLC!
T, L, TLC!
T, L, TLC!
T, L, TLC! We back!
