Crush

Pendulum

I was running into the cold light
Wondering where to go
To run away without youAll my fear is coming home
And it's ripped out from the soul
You can't be me, I will become you tonightI was wandering under black skies

Looking at what is mine No control left to lose

Well, I thought that it wouldn't face me

But I'm worrying like a child, I feel so guilty

I'll make it up to you tonightPictures that I've been dreaming are coming down

They're changing my future

Visions I had buried underground

Returning to the futureI was breaking out of my own skin

Choking up on release

I'm in not state to judge youWatching everything left alone

Chasing memories I used to own

I can't wait till this is over tonightPictures that I've been dreaming are coming down

They're changing my future

Visions I had buried underground

Returning to the future

The nightmares I've been having have arrived

The change in my future

The sounds of my creation at my door

How could you do this to her?
