The Reason (feat. Nicole Jackson)

Sigma

Shame that it took so long Now we're. We're back where we started Loving ain't so strong Your pulling me back and I can't react is the reason why I can't move on! You're the reason why I wake up You're the meaning of my true love It feels so good It feels so good ooh ooo, ooh, ooh You're the reason why I wake up You're the meaning of my true love It feels so good It feels so good ooh ooo, ooh, ooh Loving you! Loving you! Promises and endless hope are all disreguarded Tell me that you won't say no Your pulling me back and I can't react is the reason why I can't move on! You're the reason why I wake up You're the meaning of my true love It feels so good It feels so good ooh ooo, ooh, ooh You're the reason why I wake up You're the meaning of my true love It feels so good It feels so good ooh
