

Torture

Abraham Mateo

Here we go again
Nothing ever changes
Same situation
I'll walk you through the stages
He's pulling on your heart strings
Making you change things
Your clothes, Your friends
Messin with your head. Tell me how does he deserve your affection?
When there's so much more that I'd give to you
Tell me how can I divide your attention?
Frustrating, can't take it
It's killing me what can I do?
Put a gun against my head
Pull the trigger hope I'm next
Beat me till I'm black and blue
Nothin hurts as much as me not having you.
It feels like torture
Torture torture
It feels like torture
Torture torture Tears are running down your face
Cryin on my shoulder
Every day is a battle
Fighting like a soldier
To break down the walls that are keeping me out
I gotta show you how Im feel in now
Where's the justice in this mad situation
I can find the words to speak the truth
Tell me how I'm gonna win your affection
Frustrating, can't take it
It's killing me what can I do? Put a gun against my head
Pull the trigger hope I'm next
Beat me till I'm black and blue
Nothin hurts as much as me not having you.
It feels like torture
Torture torture
It feels like torture
Torture torture Can't you see the damage
Your fallin for his games
You just keep running back girl
And it's driving me insane. Put a gun against my head
Pull the trigger hope I'm next
Beat me till I'm black and blue

Nothin hurts as much as me not having you.
It feels like torture
Torture torture (feels like torture)
(No baby it feels like torture)
Torture torture (No baby it feels like torture)Taste his poison
Feel her pain
Feel it running through her veins
Dry her tears that pour like rain
Watch her just go back againTaste his poison
Feel her pain
Feel it running through her veins
Dry her tears that pour like rain
Watch her just go back again
