Underworld

Light up the darkness
I'm violently in love
The waitress smiles
The music's too loud
My body hurtsLight up the dark
Light up the dark
I'm violently in love
The music's loud
The music's loud
The music's too loudMy body hurts
My body hurts
You leave the room
And just for a second,
The silence is like a blessing
Lovers kiss
Lovers whisper
Beaming and grinning
In the underground
In the underground
This is not what I expectedLight up the dark
Light up the dark
I'm violently in love
The music's loud
The music's loud
My body hurts
You leave the room
You leave the room
And just for a second
The silence is, the silence is like a blessing
The rhythm between us
Trembles
Snatching circles
Alone with you
The heat comes from your eyes
And the soft voice
Falls
Out the skyWarm skin
Close your eyes
Eyes behind glass
More skin
Close your eyes
And the sky turns red

And the rails slip beneath usLight up (repeat)
