

Stardust

Gemini Syndrome

I know this place, it smells like innocence lost
We left the traces, but the sins we bought But I wouldn't change a thing!
(Wouldn't change nothing! Wouldn't change nothing!)
Its just a waking dream! Look at the wake, from the stardust pouring from your eyes!
Its no mistake, you are perfect, you are perfect in my mind
And you won't fade away! I know this face, its so familiar
I should have known you, but its all a blur
Now I can't recall a thing!
(Wouldn't change nothing! Wouldn't change nothing!)
Its such a wicked dream! Look at the wake, from the stardust pouring from your eyes!
Its no mistake, you are perfect, you are perfect in my mind
And you won't fade away! Glaze through the memory, living inside of me
Holes to entirety, writing my story
Lusting in glutton is so unbecoming
The stardust is making me blind! But you won't be left behind!
The memory is here to remind!
Look at the wake, from the stardust pouring from your eyes!
Its no mistake, you are perfect, you are perfect in my mind
Look at the wake, from the stardust pouring from your eyes!
Its no mistake, you are perfect, you are perfect! Look at the, look at the wake pouring from your eyes
Look at the, look at the wake, you are perfect in my mind!
And you won't fade away!
