

Sunshine (Intro)

Floetry

(Floesist)

You know sometimes we um we dont recognize our dreams inside our realities, and other times were not aware of exactly whats real, we walk around daydreaing but the sun is shining, the sunshine always isChours

I just wanna see my lovely sunshine, i just wanna bring back all of my blue skies, and if you take away my rainbow i will cry (cry) cry (cry) give me back my sunshine.(songstress)

Dreaming in my state of being and i see you smiling so happy just laughing and standing strong, im missing you right here listen to my tears, im waking up to skies so gray im needing you to brighten up my day

(Floesist)

Listen

Catch your breath cool out you need to calm down, lets concentrate dont go making all your time run out, see your ok it looks much worst than it really is and you'll pull through come on you know how we be doing this, its me and you yo promised you cant pull out now, were friends for life so you cant just sell me out, we shared alot but you know we'll see to so much more our wedding day and the children that we prayed forChorus(songstress)

i used to depend on your eyes to show me the way that i should go my reality is blurry im afraid of being all alone your light has been my guide through out the good and bad i wish that i had spent a little more attention to my one and only sunshine

Listen, listen

i'll never leave you, yo i swear that on my grave, damn whats that im feeling dizzy kinda getting faint it aint nothing didnt sleep that much last night from watching over you but no im cool im fine i said im feeling fine so back up off me im alright im here to see my friends yo whats up with that blinding light said i dont need to lay down i dont need your help right now whats up with all the noises all the running around you've got it wrong im not the one who needs the help in here yo whats up with you your crying i see tears yo whats going on dont leave please dont take her out said i don't understand im kind of feeling scared now, i said its getting hard to breath getting hard to see im not to sure anymore whats going on with me please bring her back and let me talk just one more time but its to late the last exhale is mineChorus(x2)
