

Last Text

Jacob Sartorius

Rest my head on the pillow turn off the lights right before I fall asleep Send you that face with the heart eyes, tell you goodnight yeah, hope I see you in my dreams But I still wanna say and I know its late But I miss your smile when you brush the hair off your face and you should know... You're always the last text that I send before bed, cause it's you thats, in my head in my head in my head all night and all day
You're always the first thing, every single morning, that I think of, in my head in my head in my head all night and all day.
You're my last text.
Yeah Didn't know I was falling, till I hit the ground, Yeah you caught me by surprise, but I can't catch all these butterflies I got, no, couldn't catch them if I tried Still got so much to say, hope you understand, I love how you roll my name in the palm of your hand, and you should know...
You're always the last text, that I send before bed, cause it's you thats, in my head in my head in my head all night and all day You're always the first thing, every single morning, that I think of, in my head in my head in my head all night and all day.
You're my last text, my first love, my next one up, my heart beat, my whole wide world, yeah, my best friend, perfection, my everything, and you can show your friends that you're taken, when I send you those three words tonight, tonight, and you should know...
You're always the last text, that I send before bed, cause it's you thats, in my head in my head in my head all night and all day You're always the first thing, every single morning, that I think of, in my head in my head in my head all night and all day.
You're my last text.
Yeah
