Big Chair

Travis

Well you know that I heart everything about you
And that's why it's quite hard to get through this alone
You're the only one I can talk to about it
In the darkest night I will be on my ownThese walls that we climb are hard to recognise
They fall when I say your nameHere we go fast and slow on the big chair
We don't know where we're going on the big chairDon't you know it's hard, quite, in a time of confusion

You see it could have been me instead of you
It could have been me if I wanted to
But it wasn't, so we'll have to face the truth
These walls that we climb are hard to recognise
They fall when I say your nameHere we go fast and slow on the big chair
We don't know where we're going on the big chairTime to pull the shutters down
Breaking clouds don't make a sound
When they cryHere we go fast and slow on the big chair
We don't know where we're going on the big chair
Here we go fast and slow on the big chair
We don't know where we're going on the big chair
