Charlotte OC

Something has gotten a hold of me lately
You don't believe me anymore
I'm trying to find all the love you gave me
I'm trying to find all the love that you lost
If I said I'd be good would you even believe me?
If I promised to leave right out the door
'Cause I'm trying to find all the love you gave me
I'm trying to find all the love that you lost 'Cause all the remains have
Gone up in flames
Only your ghost surrounds me
We were covered in rain
I've forgotten my name
You blinded me
I'm just a shell of who I was before
I'm just a shell of who I was before
I remember the day that you said you were leaving
You left me with nothing but tears in my eyes
I got too close
To the enemy
Not close enough
To see the disguise
'Cause all the remains have
Gone up in flames
Only your ghost surrounds me
We were covered in rain
I've forgotten my name
You blinded me
I'm just a shell of who I was before
I'm just a shell of who I was before
'Cause all the remains have
Gone up in flames
Only your ghost surrounds me
We were covered in rain
I've forgotten my name
You blinded me
I'm just a shell of who I was before
I'm just a shell of who I was before
It's hard to get over
Quick to remember
The sound when my heart dropped
Dropped to the ground
I don't regret you
I don't resent you
I just forget you were ever around
It's hard to get over
The sound when my heart dropped

I don't regret you
I don't resent you
I just forget you were ever around 'Cause all the remains have Gone up in flames
Only your ghost surrounds me
I've forgotten my name
You blinded me
Gone up in flames
Only your ghost surrounds me
I've forgotten my name
You blinded me
I'm just a shell of who I was before
