

Colour Me

Dot Allison

Now I'm sliding
It's intriguing
So young yet
Too old to learn That summer is the thirst
The river always runs dry first You're in heaven
This is heaven now
You're in heaven You're in heaven
This is heaven now
You're in heaven As the tides they
Draw and close
And the seasons
Turn again
Will the moon still
Wax and wane?
Will you always
Colour the day? You're in heaven
This is heaven now
You're in heaven You're in heaven
This is heaven now
You're in heaven Now I'm sliding
It's intriguing
This is heaven now)
So young yet
Too old to learn That summer is the thirst
The river always runs dry first
You're in heaven
This is heaven now
You're in heaven You're in heaven
This is heaven now
You're in heaven You're in heaven
This is heaven now
You're in heaven You're in heaven
This is heaven now
You're in heaven You're in heaven
This is heaven now
You're in heaven
