

Fairweather Friends

Queens of the Stone Age

Is there anyone out there?
Or am I walking alone?
When I turned around and find out that you'd gone before the first rain could fall
It seems every single time I was bleeding Broken promises that never came true
But it ain't so long before the dawn
When the sun is gone so are Well, so are you
So what is it gonna take
To get you back in bed?
Gossips, frauds and snakes
They're just our best
Fair weather friends
Fair weather friends
One day when we're far away from everything that hurts Drink wine and scream is all we do Everyday
So what is it gonna take
To get you back in bed?
Gossips, frauds and snakes
They're just our best
Fair weather friends
You know the hour is late
Don't let 'em in your head
I'm gonna pray for rain
again and again
Fair weather friends
Fair weather friends
