Buried Alive

Jill Phillips

I was surrounded by pain I was buried in the darkness all around me I was content with my chains Just like a prisoner with no desire to break freeI needed something more Some reason to believe life wasn? t all that hopeless So I knocked upon that door To let Him roll away the stone and let the light inCan? t you see there? s a change? It? s coming on stronger, I can feel it inside Life is new, now I know That when I go, I? ll be buried alive Now I? m surrounded by peace Now I? m living with a love for those in darkness 'Cause I know the difference between That grave I used to call my home and where my heart isCan? t you see there? s a change? It? s coming on stronger, I can feel it inside Life is new, now I know That when I go, I? Il be buried aliveThere is a difference inside of me It? s like I? m dead to my sin Now that salvation has set me free, oh I can finally liveCan? t you see? I can feel it inside Life is new I? Il be buried alive, I? Il be buried alive Can? t you see there? s a change? It? s coming on stronger, I can feel it inside Life is new, now I know When I go, I? Il be buried alive, I'll be buried alive Buried alive Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.
