

Hearts Collide

Building 429

"Hearts Collide (Feat. Michael Barnes)" Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh. Stars, go dim, the sun, will descend.

Kingdoms will end, but we will not, we will not bend.

(Now) shadows will fall, darkness surrounds us all.

We will wait, for the dawn, but we will not, we will not crawl. (Now) at this hour, this moment, we gotta rise up and own it. Hearts collide, like sparks in the night.

Gotta show 'em, what we're made of, show 'em, what we're made of.

You and I, like fire in the sky.

Gotta show 'em, what we're made of, there's nothing we're afraid of.

Oh, oh, oh (show 'em, what we're made of), oh, oh, oh. One for all, even up, against the wall.

We will answer, the call, we'll never back, never back off. (Now) at this hour, this moment, we gotta rise up and own it. Hearts collide, like sparks in the night.

Gotta show 'em, what we're made of, show 'em, what we're made of.

You and I, like fire in the sky.

Gotta show 'em, what we're made of, there's nothing we're afraid of. Oh, oh, oh (show 'em, what we're made of), oh, oh, oh.

Oh, oh, oh (show 'em, what we're made of), oh, oh, oh. Oh, no, we'll never bow love (gotta shout it, gotta let it out, let it out).

Oh, no, we'll never bow love (gotta shout, it gotta let it out, let it out).

Can't silence, our love, can't silence, our love, can't silence, our love, can't silence, our love.

Hearts collide, like sparks in the night.

Gotta show 'em, what we're made of, show 'em, what we're made of.

You and I, like fire in the sky.

Gotta show 'em, what we're made of, there's nothing we're afraid of. Oh, oh, oh (show 'em, what we're made of), oh, oh, oh.

Oh, oh, oh (show 'em, what we're made of), oh, oh, oh (show 'em, what we're made of).
