As Any Fool Can See

Tracy Lawrence

Lately she's been picking fights, dropping hints and just last night
I caught a tear as she slipped off to sleep
She's not here but she's not gone, I guess she must be waitin' on
The kind of man I promised her I'd beAs any fool can see
She's gonna cross that line, she's got leaving on her mind
And it's too late but what keeps killing me
Is knowing I've been blind as any fool can seeHow long did I think she'd stand for me to be the kind of man

That came and went just as I dang well pleased
While she sits at home alone with thoughts and feeling's of her own
Lord knows goodbye would bring me to my knees
As any fool can see
She's gonna cross that line, she's got leaving on her mind
And it's too late but what keeps killing me

And it's too late but what keeps killing me Is knowing I've been blind as any fool can see She's gonna cross that line, she's got leaving on her mind

And it's too late but what keeps killing me

Is knowing I've been blind as any fool can seeShe's gonna cross that line, she's got leaving on her mind

And it's too late but what keeps killing me
Is knowing I've been blind as any fool can see
