A Showman's Life

Buddy Miller

A showman's life is a smokey bar and The fevered chase of a tiny star It's a hotel room and a lonely wife From what I've seen of a showman's life

Nobody told me about this partThey told me all about the pretty girls and the wine and The money and the good times

No mention of all the wear and tear on an old honkey-tonker's heart

Well, I might have known it

But nobody told me about this part

A boy will dream as children do

Of a great white way, 'til the dream comes true

And a phoney smile in a colored light

Is all it is to a showman's life

Nobody told me about this partThey told me all about the pretty girls and the wine and The money and the good times

No mention of all the wear and tear on an old honkey-tonker's heart

Well, I might have known it

But nobody told me about this part

Nobody told me about this part

They told me all about the pretty girls and the wine and

The money and the good times

No mention of all the wear and tear on an old honkey-tonker's heart

Well, I might have known it

But nobody told me about this part

Well, I might have known it

But nobody told me about this part
