

Heart of a Lion (Kid Cudi Theme Music)

Kid Cudi

Please save a kid that needs some help
And I can't begin to think of anything that could help
But the weed is guaranteed indeed just what I need
How I feel upon a time so recent in time make me sad
When I recollect how it use to be Like David and Goliath kinda like me and the devil
Tryna rip out my soul, tryna catch a nigga on sleep, no, no
You can try again and I'll be ready
Won't let you kill me in my dream like Freddy Krueger
No, I'm not no loser, I'll see you in hell
At the end of the day, day my momma told me
Don't let no one break me, let no one break me
At end of the day, day, nobody, nobody
Ever could stop me, ever could stop me
At the end of the day, day you can't regret it
If you were trying, if you were trying
At the end of the day, day I'm walking
With a heart of a lion, yeah
Please save a kid that needs some help
And I can't see ahead of me so I move in stealth
Hide and seek within a dream
I seem to glide above my horror though
I feel I'll never be complete inside the dark I borrow To proceed and remain intact my mental was so unstable
And they talk and judge a man they have no clue of what I'm capable Till I show a side of me no one had thought could be within
I told ya, no, I'm not no loser I'll see you in hell
At the end of the day, day my momma told me
Don't let no one break me, let no one break me
At end of the day, day, nobody, nobody
Ever could stop me, ever could stop me
At the end of the day, day you can't regret it
If you were trying, if you were trying
At the end of the day, day I'm walking
With a heart of a lion, yeah
No, no, no, no, no, no, no, yeah, no, yeah
(The heart of a lion, the heart of a lion)
No, no, no, no, no, no, no, yeah, no, yeah
(The heart of a lion, the heart of a lion)
No, no, no, no, no, no, no, yeah, no, yeah
(The heart of a lion, the heart of a lion)
No, no, no, no, no, no, no, yeah, no, yeah
(Yeah) I'm just a kid who needs no help
I've achieved a bigger thing no cash or check could be more blessed
And if you would've seen the things I've seen up in my stumble?
You'd be shook stay awake no need to run your fate will follow you
You should know not for the faint at heart

This world understands no coward
It's a goal a simple code I stay on the grind to the 25th hour
And I know the fight in me is somewhere hiding deep within
I told you, no, I'll never let you drag me down to hell, no
At the end of the day, day my momma told me
Don't let no one break me, let no one break me
At end of the day, day, nobody, nobody
Ever could stop me, ever could stop me
At the end of the day, day you can't regret it
If you were trying, if you were trying
At the end of the day, day I'm walking
With a heart of a lion, yeah
No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, yeah, no, yeah
No, no, no, no, no, no, yeah, no, yeah
No, no, no, no, no, no, yeah, no, yeah
No, no, no, no, no, no, yeah, no, yeah
