

I Don't Wanna Die Anymore

New Radicals

I was wrapped up in my doona and wrapped up in my own head
I spent winter wishing I could do over or be dead
And when we passed on the street I hadn't seen you in like six weeks
And my entire body still missed beats And I'll come charging at your front door
Cause I don't wanna be alone anymore
And leaving isn't what I came here for
Leaving isn't what I came here for
I'll kick and scream at your front door
And unpack my bag onto your bedroom floor
Leaving isn't what I came here for
Leaving isn't what I came here for
And I was hanging out on the corner of 17th and Peachtree
We'd been loading out waiting now ours for a taxi
Words were spoken we skipped steps
My guitar case it hit hard against our legs
Bit the bruises I'd collected on my shins
Since the night I went and packed it in And I don't wanna die anymore
So come on darling, give me something to live for And I'll kick and scream at your front door
Cause I don't want to be alone anymore
Leaving isn't what I came here for
Leaving isn't what I came here for
I'll kick and scream at your front door
And unpack my bag onto your bedroom floor
Leaving isn't what I came here for
Leaving isn't what I came here for
And I know I fucked up and I know I done wrong
And that you deserve more than another fucking song
But leaving isn't what I came here for Leaving isn't what I came here for And I don't wanna die anymore
