

Love Her Like She's Leavin' (feat. Don Henley)

Brad Paisley

We cut the cake everybody danced and some people drank too much You looked like the cover of Brides magazine a nd I looked like some guy in the tux I'll never forget when your Uncle Bill pulled up a chair and sat down He said son I've been married now 45 years and pointed at you through the crowd And said Love her like she's leaving
Like it's going to end if you don't
Love her like she's leaving
Oh and I guarantee she won't He said it's sending her flowers for no reason at all and notes on the fridge every day An unexpected gift at an unexpected time, that keep the lawyers away
It's easy to take forever for granted with tin cans tied to your car
I know she tells you that she'll always be there but I'm telling you if you're smart Love her like she's leaving Like it's going to end if you don't
Love her like she's leaving Oh and I guarantee she won't She could have any man she wants you know it's true
Best way to keep her is to keep her wanting you
Love her like she's leaving
Like it's going to end if you don't
Love her like she's leaving
Oh and I guarantee she won't Oh and I guarantee she won't Love her like she's leaving...
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://counterlikes.com/>