

Hold Me Up (NOW What's Next!)

Conrad Sewell

In a minute you can realize you lost it all
In a second you were always there to break my fall
Til you came and saved my life
In the lonely hour
In the lonely hour Oh, I'm praying for some help
I can't do it by myself
Need you now
Need you right now
You know there ain't nobody else
Who can save me from this hell
Need you now, need you right now So hold me up, oh
I know you'll never let me down
Need you to hold me up
I need someone like you around
So hold me up, oh
Hold me up, no
I know you'll never let me down
Said hold me up, oh
Hold me up, no
I need someone like you around
Can you hold me up? I wanna tell you secrets no one's ever heard before
I wanna give you everything, all of my heart and more
'Cause you came and saved my life
In the lonely hour
In the lonely hour
Oh, praying for some help
I can't do it by myself, need you now
Need you right now
So hold me up, oh
I know you'll never let me down
Need you to hold me up
I need someone like you around
So hold me up, oh
Hold me up, no
I know you'll never let me down
Said hold me up, oh
Hold me up, no
I need someone like you around
Can you hold me up? So hold me up
Don't ever let me go, go, go
Don't ever let me go, go, go
Don't ever let me go, go, go

So hold me up
Hold me up
Don't ever let me go, go, go
So Hold me up
Hold me up
Don't ever let me go, goSo hold me up, oh
Hold me up, yeah
I know you'll never let me down
Said hold me up, oh
Hold me up, no
I need someone like you around
So can you hold me up?
Oh, baby
Oh, baby
So hold me up now
I know you'll never let me down
Hold me up
