

Nai's March

Superorganism

Tokyo, oh tokyo
I'm aware of your deadly present
I see you've come with the presents
And brought along your mother tooTokyo, oh tokyo
I'm afraid of what's going to happen
When every bedroom flattens
And everything falls in the seaTokyo, oh tokyo
You're too tall of a truth to take in
Since we're grounded in a day-dream
Can't wait till we meet up again
