Nicky Romero & NERVO

Love the way they all keep talking
Everybody likes the sound
But no one ever hears me crying, crying outYou make it feel like home
You make it feel like home

Never been so scared of losingBut never understood the calm So take me where I wanna be - back in your arms

Cause you make it feel like home

You make it feel like home

Only you only you only do this Only you only you only do this

And it's never the same cause

You make it feel
