Parachute

Chris Stapleton

Street lights along the highway Throwing shadows in the dark And the memories keep on turning To the rhythm of a broken heartYou only need a roof when it's raining You only need a fire when it's cold You only need a drink when the whiskey Is the only thing you have left to hold Sun comes up and goes back down And falling feels like flying till you hit the ground Say the word and I'll be there for you Baby, I will be your parachute ParachuteThere's a song that I remember I never learned to play And a lifetime of forgotten words I never got to sayYou only need a roof when it's raining You only need a fire when it's cold You only need a drink when the whiskey Is the only thing you have left to hold Sun comes up and goes back down And falling feels like flying till you hit the ground Say the word and I'll be there for you Baby, I will be your parachuteParachuteIf you think you're going down Just know I will be around

You only need a roof when it's raining
You only need a fire when it's cold
You only need a drink when the whiskey
Is the only thing you have left to hold
Sun comes up and goes back down
And falling feels like flying till you hit the ground
Say the word and I'll be there for you
Baby, I will be your
