

Lilly Dale

Bob Wills

As I hear the Mocking birds, I remember the words
When you said, that forever you'd love me
Now happiness is gone, memories linger on
From the chains of our love, I set you free Sweet as the morning, smile like the sunshine
Ours was a love no words could tell
I love you, oh how I miss you
Won't you come back, Lily Dale Since we have said good bye, I'm so blue, I could cry
Happiness is a thing called the past
Days without you, make my nights, oh, so blue
And always in my heart, our love will last
Sweet as the morning, smile like the sunshine
Ours was a love no words could tell
I love you, oh how I miss you
Won't you come back, Lily Dale
Won't you come back, Lily Dale?
