

Going Under

Patti Smith

Sun is rising on the water
Light is dancing again
Let's go under where the sun beams
Let's go under my friend Are we sleeping
Are we dreaming
Are we dancing again
Is it heaven
Crack it open and we'll slide down its stream We can hold on (I'm sure)
To the sea's foaming mane
It will serve us
We'll surface
and we'll plunge back again
Sun is rising on the water
Light is dancing like a flame
There's no burning where the sun beams
Oh it's such a lovely game Does the sea dream (I'm sure)
We are here, we attend
We are bells on the shore where the tolling suspends Who will decide the shape of things
The shift of being
Who will perceive
When life is new
Shall we divide and become another
Who is due for gift upon gift
Who will decide
Shall we swim over and over
The curve of a wing
Its destination ever changing
Sun is rising on the water
Light is dancing like a flame
Let's go waltzing on the water
Let's go under again Let's go under Going under
