Going Under

Patti Smith

Sun is rising on the water
Light is dancing again
Let's go under where the sun beams
Let's go under my friendAre we sleeping

Are we dreaming

Are we dancing again

Is it heaven

Crack it open

and we'll slide down its streamWe can hold on (I'm sure)

To the sea's foaming mane

It will serve us

We'll surface

and we'll plunge back again

Sun is rising on the water

Light is dancing like a flame

There's no burning where the sun beams

Oh it's such a lovely gameDoes the sea dream (I'm sure)

We are here, we attend

We are bells on the shore

where the tolling suspendsWho will decide the shape of things

The shift of being

Who will perceive

When life is new

Shall we divide and become another

Who is due for gift upon gift

Who will decide

Shall we swim over and over

The curve of a wing

Its destination ever changing

Sun is rising on the water

Light is dancing like a flame

Let's go waltzing on the water

Let's go under againLet's go under

Going under
