Immortal (feat. Steve Balsamo)

Eric Woolfson

Do you have the will to walk on water
Do you have the strength to part the waves
Do you have the lips to kiss a blood red rose
'Fore the colors start to fade
But are you tough enough to walk through the fire
Are you (?) split the hangman's nooseWanna ride, gonna slide, take it over the line
Hit the pin, kick it in
I'm gonna win againI don't wanna live forever
I just want a slice of the pie to call my own
I don't wanna live forever
Do you wanna be, like I wanna be
Immortal
Do you have the bread to feed the hunger
Do you have to choose to turn water to wine
Do you have the tears to cry me a river
Build a bridge to the other side
But are you holding out for the late edition
Gonna read all about it cause it's frontpage news
So high, bone dry, got a thirst for life
Kiss the skin, drink it in
I'm gonna win againI don't wanna live forever
I just want a slice of the pie to call my own
I don't wanna live forever
Do you wanna be, like I wanna be
Immortal
Just like the gates of heaven
There's no way back, there's no way back
I'm ten miles high got the keys to the kingdom
I'm back on track
Got a life and I'm living itDo you have the (game?) to the tell me a secret
Or will I read all about it when it's frontpage newsWanna ride, gonna slide, take it over the line
Hit the pin, kick it in
I'm gonna win againI don't wanna live forever
I just want a slice of the pie to call my own
I don't wanna live forever
Do you wanna be, like I wanna be
I don't wanna live forever
I just want a slice of the pie to call my own
I don't wanna live forever
Do you wanna be, like I wanna be immortal
I don't wanna live forever
Cause I wanna be immortal

Do you wanna be immortal
I don't wanna live forever
Like I wanna be immortal
Don't you wanna be immortal
I don't wanna live forever
Cause I wanna be immortal
Do you wanna be immortal
I don't wanna live forever
Like I wanna be immortal
