Octavian, Gunna & SAINT JHN

OCTAVIAN FEAT. GUNNA & SAINT JHN - FAMOUS (Famous)

All bunch of new friends, bet you can't name one (Name one)
You're the only one I need now, but you switched up (Switched up)
Just called your number, boy, you ain't ever picked up
It's been about six months
Ever since you got famous (Famous)
All bunch of new girls, bet you can't name one (Name one)
I don't wanna say that you switched up
You broke my heart, boy, how you gonna fix that? (Give you assistance)
Who'd ever thought I'd make it on Forbes?
Had to make that good choice
I get that shit for my voice
We flyin' private into Cl?arport
I'm rollin' like a motocross
I can't cap, I had the chrome for my walk
L?t it in, I tell young nigga, Go and floss
I'm takin' lessons, learnin' how to play the guitar
And I'm a nasty whore (Oh yeah)
The reason why I'm fuckin' on tours (Uh)
He a ho one but that's why I ignore (Ignore)
Type of hitter, you don't never seen this before
Ever since you got famous (Famous)
All bunch of new friends, bet you can't name one (Name one)
You're the only one I need now, but you switched up (Switched up)
Just called your number, boy, you ain't ever picked up
It's been about six months
Ever since you got famous (Famous)
All bunch of new girls, bet you can't name one (Name one)
I don't wanna say that you switched up
You broke my heart, boy, how you gonna fix that? (Give you assistance)How are you gonna point me? Girl, you disappoint me
Now you wanna join me, you just want to coin me
And now you wanna join me, you wanna annoy me
Ayy, I made you my baby, you know I'm stuntin', baby
And now you wanna blame me, and now you wanna tame me
You're never gonna change me, ghetto lil' baby
Who would've believed that I made it?
Who would've blown money on grandmomma baby?
Who would say they made a nice lil' savin'?
I was runnin' Bedford on the pavement
Who would've believed that I lost it?

Who'd have thought I'd tap out, hit the floor bad?
Who would know I'd max out on a profit?
Didn't faze me, wasn't there for the gossip And you shouldn't lie no more, you shouldn't lie no more (No more, yeah)
We won't lose you, we won't be like before, you better know
I'm all yours, you better know I'm all yours (All yours)
Get into your mind 'cause we're winnin' this time Ever since you got famous (Famous)
All bunch of new friends, bet you can't name one (Name one)
You're the only one I need now, but you switched up (Switched up)
Just called your number, boy, you ain't ever picked up
It's been about six months
Ever since you got famous (Famous)
All bunch of new girls, bet you can't name one (Can't name one)
I don't wanna say that you switched up
You broke my heart, boy, how you gonna fix that? (Give you assistance)
