

Rather Be

Brandy

I'd rather be kissing you, baby
I'd rather be kissing you, baby
I don't need no extras, just give you to me (I, I) I'd rather be kissing you, baby Just call me more, a little
Your voice, it makes me feel better
Why you even tryna ignore me?
Boy there's other ways to get my attention
Just be here for me, baby I...I'd rather be kissing you, baby
I'd rather be kissing you, baby
I don't need no extras, just give you to me (I, I)
I'd rather be kissing you, baby
You know I love you down deep within You're my best friend
When we are together it feels like forever
Ain't nobody like you
Kissing me the way you do
You's a real one (talk about it, babe)
Nobody in this world is like us two
That's why I'd rather I'd rather be kissing you (baby) baby
I'd rather be kissing you (baby) baby
(I don't need no extras) I don't need no extras just give you to me (no)
I'd rather be kissing you (kissing you), baby I'd rather be kissing you, baby
I'd rather be kissing you, baby
I don't need no extras, just give you to me
I'd rather be kissing you
Extras just give you to me
Extras just give you to me
Extras just give you to me
You're gonna want me
