

Rock of Your Love

John Hiatt

It ain't like I'm so tough
You shook me to the heart
You shook me sure enough Turned my whole world upside down
I tried to run away but I just ran aground On the rock of your love
On the stone hard truth
On the rock of your love
I found my living proof
You pierced through armor plated steel
You tore into my soul
And forced me to be real
I feel the strength of 20 men
When I am in your arms
I smash those fears again On the rock of your love
On the stone hard truth
On the rock of your love
I found my living proof BRIDGE:
I'm crashing like a wave tonight
Upon your distant shore
I have found the solid ground
That I've been looking for
On the rock of your love
On the stone hard truth
On the rock of your love
I found my living proof On the rock of your love
I found my living proof
