

Can't Let You Go (Main Remix)

Fabulous

Baby girl
You know my situation
And sometimes I know you get impatient
But you don't put to on a show to get patience
Take it to court and go through litagations
And I respect ya gangsta
Treat you like a princess
And put something on your neck to thank ya
Shes my pinch hitta
When the startin lineup aint playin right
I come off the bench wit her
It might sound like im gassin ya
But it took time to get from the back seat to the passenger
We been creepin and sneakin
Just to keep it from leakin
We so deep in our freakin
That we don't sleep on the weekend
Wifey
A little bit uptight
Wonderin why he comin home in the middle of the night
It'll be alright if ya'll bump heads it'll be a fight
But i said it'll be alright
I really wanna be with you (be with you)
But I gotta be real with you (real with you)
I can't leave you alone (lone)
And I know I live and grown?
But i can't let ya go
Your the one i want in my life (want in my life)
Already got a wife (got a wife)
Can't leave you alone (lone)
And I know I live and grown?But I can't let ya go
You aint ever step out of line
Or get out a pocket
So i made sure canary sent out your locket
To protect you, i'll get out and cock it
And you know the barrel of my gun is big enough to spit out a rocket
Oh, you gonna play dumb if cops do come through
I gotta keep the top up if my drop do come through
But i know the boutiques and the shops you run through
So i cop her one, and cop you one too
You always get a daily page, weekly ring
Plus you aint too shy to do them freaky things

I aint gotta put a band on your finger
 I worry about you tellin the whole world im your new allen springer
 At first you were somethin i denied
 Something I would slide
 Just do somethin in the ride
 But shortyTheres something that you provide Cause the entre pain is good without somethin on the sideI really wanna be with you (be with you)
 But I gotta be real with you (real with you)
 I can't leave you alone (lone)
 And I know I live and grown?
 But i can't let ya go
 Your the one i want in my life (want in my life)
 Already got a wife (got a wife)Can't leave you alone (lone)
 And I know I live and grown?
 But I can't let ya goUh oh, i might be leavin the earth soon
 My girl gonna kill me if she smells the scent of your perfume
 Its gonna be a clip towards if I go back
 With stains of your lip gloss on my throwbackShe wont care if im a platinum rapper
 If she catch me with an empty magnum wrapper
 So keep it on the down low call the carsely
 You seen what happened with Mr. Big and R KellyYou know I get from you
 Anytime this chick is there for you
 Feelings im'ma share wit you
 Which makes it a Lil Mo clear for youI really wanna be with you (be with you)
 But I gotta be real with you (real with you)
 I can't leave you alone (lone)
 And I know I live and grown?
 But i can't let ya go
 Your the one i want in my life (want in my life)
 Already got a wife (got a wife)
 Can't leave you alone (lone)
 And I know I live and grown?
 But I can't let ya go
