

Too Late

Asia

I say, no way
You've gone and stepped across that fine line
I cried, you lied
I tried, maybe a thousand times before
I can't take no more Too late
You let the sun go down
Too late
You changed direction
Too late
For you to turn around
We tried everything
Move on, so long
Two side to every story
You told, good nights
bad days, time to go out separate ways
I can't say no more Too late
You let the sun go down
Too late
You changed direction
Too late
For you to turn around
We tried everything
Too late
You let the sun go down
Too late
You changed direction
Too late
For you to turn around
We tried everything
