

Be Apart

Porches

they try to feel it out i leave the house
and now my body moves
it is so physical it's got me so awake
the darkness hanging
black water by my side
i will go out tonight cause i wanna be apart
i wanna be apart
i wanna be a part
of it all i wait for it to come i am so patient
and when it really does i let it have me whole
cause i wanna be apart
i wanna be apart
of it all
