

Two of a Crime

Miranda Lambert

Red rosé on a painted lips
Putting on Chanel
Packing Harlem boots
Side by side like fuzzy dice
If looks could kill
We'd be doing time We're a deadly combination you and me
The way I play it cool
And you bring the heat
But I got your back
And I know that you got mine
That makes us two of a crime
We're evidence that contraband and Southern charm, go hand in hand
Fooling all the Federalés
Shooting tequila
Hiding the bodies We're a deadly combination you and me
The way I play it cool
And you bring the heat
But I got your back
And I know that you got mine
That makes us two of a crime
We're a deadly combination you and me
The way I play it cool
And you bring the heat
But I got your back
And I know that you got mine
That makes us two of a crime
