

Lover 4 Now (feat. Todd Edwards)

Groove Armada

Her words are like a song on the radio
Stuck in your head with nothing meaningful
She'll only say what she thinks you wanna hear
You hope that she will notice, but she won't
That you could give her what the others don't She'll make you believe it, if it will keep you near
Stuck in your head with nothing meaningful
She's all I'm living for
Stuck in your head with nothing meaningful
She's all I'm living for
Lover just for now
There you go looking for her again
And how many before you have there been
Do you still believe that, you're the only one that tries
She'll tease you with her body that she flaunts
As long as she is getting what she wants
And you'll eat it up as she feeds you lies
Stuck in your head with nothing meaningful
She's all I'm living for
Stuck in your head with nothing meaningful
She's all I'm living for
Lover just for now
Why do you wanna be, in love, wasting your time
You need a little sympathy, you've had enough wasting your time
Stuck in your head with nothing meaningful
She's all I'm living for
Her words are like a song on the radio
She's all I'm living for
Lover just for now, you've had enough
Wasting your time
