

Clones

Ash

Now you're a clone
With heart of stone
Synthetic soul
Brainwashed and cold You're just a drone
Got no control
Forced in a mold
Processed and sold Hey!
You know I find it frightening
How you change just as fast as lightning You fell from grace
Leaving no trace
You've been replaced
Your name erased
Hey!
It's your self-destruction
You never listened to my instruction Shame, shame, shame, shame Shame
That everyone's the same
I thought you stood alone
We're different from the clones You were a flash of light
A meteorite
Unique in time
Now outta sight For I have seen
What could've been
I've had a dream
A prophecy
Hey!
Now there's no use waiting
Everything is disintegrating Shame
That everyone's the same
I thought you stood alone
We're different from the clones I thought you were the truth
Exception to the rule
But the truth is cruel Clones, clones, clones, clones
Clones, clones, clones, clones Yeah! Hey!
Now there's no use waiting
Everything is disintegrating Shame
That everyone's the same
I thought you stood alone
We're different from the clones I thought you were the truth
Exception to the rule
But the truth is cruel
