

Christmas Drag

I DONT KNOW HOW BUT THEY FOUND ME

Another Christmas without you
That makes it two in a row
Just wrap me up like a present
I'll tie you up with a bow I'll just stay gone until New Years
Or I won't come back again
Oh how I wish it was last year
When we were still best friends Christmas is a drag sometimes
Please say next year that you will be mine
All you gotta do
I'd say that I love you
And Christmas this next year will be fine
