

Run Away (with Eric Lumiere)

Cosmic Gate

You have been afraid
Now its time to face the light
It's the reason you want
The reason you want
To be alive

You have been asleep
Now its time to wake inside
You're hearing a call
The call that you try to deny
(The call that you try to deny)

Come

If you wanna run away with me
Tonight tonight
And come

If you wanna see what i can see
Tonight tonight

Meet me on the plane
The place where both the worlds collide
The place with no feel
The place where no hate
Can decide

When you're here youre safe
In my arms you cannot hide
The truth of your hearts
The one that you are you can't deny
(The one that you are you can't deny)

Come

If you wanna run away with me
Tonight tonight
And come

If you wanna see what i can see
Tonight tonight
