

Superstar

The Prince Karma

I call you up, no pick up what to do
I got a reservation, the bottle was for you
And as I get back in my car, I drive far
I call you back and ask you,
Who do you think you are? A superstar
I said a superstar All your friends call me up without you
They want to play with me, what I'm supposed to do?
Come to my house on the hills, Malibu
Look outside my view, my neighbor is Tom Cruise
[gibberish] Who do you think you are? A superstar
I said a superstar Well he pick me up with his car
Making very funny noise
Krou krou krou all the time Who do you think you are?
A superstar
I said a superstar Play "Superstar"
